FOUR CENTS

ALLIES DOUBT THAT NAZIS TOOK MUSSOLINI

HUNS AND JAPS WAX ELOQUENT 'OVER CAPTURE'

Coup Effected in Raid by German Paratroops, Say Hitler Henchmen As They Extol His Loyalty

(By the Associated Press)
Berlin and Tokyo waxed lyrical today over the Nazi-reported "liberation" of Benito Mussolini.

"Not only Mussolini's personal friends, but the whole Japanese nation were overwhelmed with joy by the Duce's liberation," the chief of the Japanese Information Bureau told a press conference, according to a Berlin broadcast recorded by The Associated Press.

"This feat was one of the most dramatic events of this war and Japan unreservedly admires the determination and loyalty of the Fuehrer to liberate his friend who was doomed to death," the Japanese propagandist was quoted as saying.

Meandering Along the Main Stem By WASH. FAYETTE

One of my soldier friends who is stationed at New Orleans, and has sent me two or three interesting clippings but has not signed his name (I wish he would the next time), has forwarded a page from one of the military publications quoting an article from some unknown publication, and because it is apropos of the War Bond sales campaign at present, I am quoting the article:

"The test is not merely whether our hearts bleed for the men overseas, nor whether we give them our full confidence. The harder test for us is whether we match on the home front their effort on the fighting front. Are we willing to work as hard and as long hours as they are working? Are we willing to go without as many necessities as they are doing? The men at the front do not need more flag-waving and more sympathetic words from us. They need more ships, tanks, planes, guns, food. They want us to pass the ammunition."

And of course, paying for the ammunition is a vital necessity.

Crickets and hair combs do not mix, due to the long legs of the crickets, as demonstrated by a recent incident at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grubbs, in Good Hope.

A few mornings ago Frank wanted to comb his hair but missed his comb from its accustomed place on the chiffonier. Mrs. Grubbs could shed no light on the mysterious disappearance of the comb, so a search was started to solve the mystery.

The search disclosed the comb under a bed, and stuck fast to the comb was a large black cricket with one leg entangled between the teeth.

Apparently the big cricket had stuck fast in the comb and succeeded in dragging it from the chiffonier to the floor, and then under the bed. The insect was still able to move the comb when found.

Frank took the cricket out of doors, released it from the comb, and gave him his freedom.

When Bliss Cochran of Buena Vista, API employee, went to sign for a $100 bond Monday morning, he said to Jack DeBoit, who was making the bond sale:

"I was born on Friday, the 13th, 1913. This is my 13th bond and I am buying it on the 13th."

Bliss thinks the combination of thirteens is lucky, and hopes that his bond will go toward buying a bomb that lands squarely in the heart of Tokyo.

Football Comes Early to Aleutians Where Yanks Manage To Find Time To Play

DO THE BOYS IN CAMP want sports to continue? Brother, don't ask! Not only do they want 'em to continue, they want to play 'em. It's the football season here and also on the fighting fronts. These players are stationed at Adak, in the Aleutians. What's a little mud between friends? (International)

YANKS FIGHT FIERCELY IN ITALY

Assault On Japan Brought Nearer as Italy's Navy Joins

LONDON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Another Italian naval force arrived at Valletta, Malta, today, including the 23,000-ton battleship Giulio Cesare, the 5,000-ton seaplane carrier Giuseppe Miraglia, four destroyers and a number of submarines.

The arrivals brought to at least 38 the known number of Italian warships in Allied hands, and naval authorities waited for word of other arrivals from a score of Mediterranean bases.

Six of Italy's seven battleships now have been accounted for. Five are in Allied hands, the Roma was sunk by German planes, and only the 35,000-ton Impero remains unreported.

The 35,000-ton battleships Italia and Vittorio Veneto and the smaller 24,000-ton Andrea Doria and Duilio, as well as six cruisers, eight destroyers and 14 submarines arrived at Malta late last week, shortly after the armistice was announced.

A dispatch from Madrid, however, said that an Italian cruiser and four other warships, destroyers and gunboats, had been interned at Port Mahon in the Balearics for overstaying the 24-hour leave as provided by international law.

FERGUSON FACTION FACES DIFFICULTIES

Squabble Over Patronage in Ohio at Showdown

COLUMBUS, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Ohio Democrats, attending State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson's informal convention here today, may have to consider ways to seek more federal patronage and selection of national convention delegates without any suggestions from the National Democratic organization.

Ferguson said he had invited national committee members Charles Sawyer and Mildred Jaster to attend the meeting, but neither replied and he did not expect them to be here.

The auditor's announcement that the meeting probably would include a discussion of suitable national convention delegates was listed as one reason why the national committee members stay away.

JAP ISLAND BLASTED BY YANK BOMBERS

War Again Brought Close to Mikado's Homeland

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The Japanese Domei Agency said in a broadcast today that 18 American bombers attacked Japanese installations in the northern Kurile Islands yesterday. The broadcast was recorded by the federal communications commission.

The Kuriles stretch northward from Japan and include the principal north Pacific naval base at Paramushiro.

Domei admitted that two Japanese transports were set afire but said damage to land installations was "extremely light."

Land batteries and army and navy airmen shot down eight and possibly nine the broadcast said, adding that Japanese losses consisted of one plane.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—National Selective Service headquarters emphasized today that it would make certain every available non-father has been inducted into military service before starting the drafting of fathers next month.

New classifications will be the nation at midnight Wednesday while all local draft boards review their records to see that men without dependents are classified properly.

Registrants classified in 2-A and 2-B by mistake, and non-fathers who were placed in 4-F but who now are physically able, will be reclassified.

ITALIANS AND NAZIS BATTLE IN ALBANIA

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Violent fighting is taking place between Italians and Germans in the Albanian port of Durazzo, across the Adriatic, from Brindisi, and all Italian naval units in the vicinity have been scuttled, a London broadcast said today. The report was recorded by CBS.

"The Italian garrison at Tirana (the Albanian capital) is offering stiff resistance," the broadcast added.

NEAR RACE RIOT IS NIPPED BY DETROIT POLICE

Two Officers Manhandled And Crowd Exhorted To Violence at Arrest

DETROIT, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Three Negro men and one woman were held by police today in the investigation of an incident in the Negro East Side section early Sunday which brought out a riot squad.

Officers used tear gas to scatter a crowd of 500 Negroes which had gathered about 1 A. M. when two patrolmen were arresting a Negro on his wife's complaint that he had beaten her.

The patrolmen, Harry Chambers and Guy Bliss, said the crowd surrounded their scout car. Their uniforms were torn but neither officer was injured. Help came at their radio request.

Chambers and Bliss said one Negro climbed to the top of a parked automobile and tried to urge the crowd to violence. He was taken into custody along with the complaining wife, her husband and another man.

This was the first major trouble in the Negro district since the June 21 race riots.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGED IN PORTSMOUTH KILLING

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Sheriff Earl Brandel said today he would file a manslaughter charge against Daniel Hiles, 20-year-old timber worker, in the shotgun death of Hiles' brother-in-law, Walter Blanton, 28. The sheriff reported Hiles admitted the shooting at their home near Bear Creek because "he (Blanton) abused by sister and threatened me with an axe."

EASTERN SOCIALITE KNIFED IN BACK IN MYSTERY THAT RIVALS HIS MOVIE ROLES

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The erratic course of a small automobile into a bean field in suburban Venice attracted the attention of Wayne Powell, a passerby.

A man staggered from the car and collapsed at Powell's feet, blood streaming from a stab wound in the back. Powell reported to Police Lieut. R. B. McCredie of the homicide detail:

"I knelt beside him and he whispered: 'please help me,' two times—then he died."

McCredie said he had identified the man tentatively as David

Captain of U-Boat That Sank British Carrier Is Captured

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The navy announced today that the skipper of the German U-boat which sank the British aircraft carrier Ark Royal had been captured by a United States plane which bombed and sank the enemy undersea boat off the coast of Brazil.

Kapteinleutnant Friedrich Guggenberger, who was decorated by Germany for the sinking of the British carrier in 1941, was one of seven survivors picked up after a duel between the navy plane and the U-boat in which bombs finally shattered the submarine.

Guggenberger, the navy said, "is now a prisoner of the United States."

The date of the action in which the submarine was sunk was not disclosed.

The navy statement said: "Axis radio reports stated that Guggenberger was awarded the Knight's Cross of the Iron Cross by Germany in December, 1941, for sinking the Ark Royal and he was awarded the Oak Leaves to the Knight's Cross early this year."

Guggenberger was commander of one of two U-boats which the Germans credited for the Ark Royal sinking.

The navy plane, a Martin Marauder, was flying anti-submarine patrol off the Brazilian coast when its crew sighted the submarine. Only minutes later the U-boat sighted the plane.

CHUNGKING, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek was elected president of China to succeed the late Dr. Lin Sen at a meeting of the Kuomintang Central Executive committee today.

Under a revision of the National Government's organic law adopted Saturday, Chiang becomes, as president, commander-in-chief of China's land, air and naval forces.

In a statement to the Central Executive committee, Chiang expressed hope that Communists would redeem their pledge of 1937 to give up the Communist movement, dissolve the Soviet organization and disband the Red Army by incorporating it into the national army.

BLOODY BATTLE FOR NAPLES BUT BRITISH ADVANCE

German Positions in Russia Continue To Collapse and Japs Kept on Run

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE (By The Associated Press)

German troops, tanks, artillery and planes are striking savagely in "very heavy fighting" against the Allied Fifth Army battling to carve a deeper salient in the bloody Salerno battlefield of Italy, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Nazis were hurling their full weight against this invasion bridgehead. They apparently were abandoning southern Italy where British and Canadian pushed rapidly up the toe, capturing the eastern port of Crotone, and seizing Brindisi on the heel.

The Salerno-Naples area was the crucial point of invasion, with action flaring along a 30-mile coastline. Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's troops smashed out repeatedly against Nazi armor and artillery commanding the hills, and headquarters said the bridgehead was firmly established.

The air scouring continued unabated over Italy. German air-dromes at Maritza and Calatone on the island of Rhodes in the Dodecanese were hit twice in significant raids over the week end, with U. S. Liberators staging the attacks Sunday.

Turkish reports said that Italian troops in Rhodes fought the Germans three days before surrendering, and that clashes still were occurring in the Dodecanese Islands as the Nazis sought to clamp down control.

Italians and Germans were reported by the United Nations radio at Algiers to be fighting in the heights north and south of Naples, with a "full battle" raging in the Turin area between the erstwhile Allies. Other reports, however, indicated little if any

HOLD SUSPECT IN DEATH OF CHARLES ADDIS

Robert Hatfield Is Arrested
In Philadelphia for Horseman's Murder

Robert Hatfield, 26, Brown County fugitive from the London Prison Farm, has been arrested in his wife's apartments in Philadelphia for questioning in connection with the murder of Charles C. Addis, 37, Ironton garage man and well known horseman who had a string of horses in training at the Fayette County Fairground in 1941, whose body was found May 15 in an outbuilding on the Ray Freeman Farm near Otway, 20 miles northwest of Portsmouth.

Announcement of the arrest was made at Portsmouth, Sunday night, by Sheriff Earl Brandel. Hatfield, a fugitive from the London Prison Farm, is to be returned to the prison from Philadelphia Monday and Sheriff Brandel said he would be placed in the Scioto County jail "this week."

Addis left his garage May 12 with a stranger and his body was found three days later on the Freeman farm in the hills near Otway. He had been shot in his head with a small caliber revolver. He had been robbed.

A search for Hatfield was instituted by officers several days after Addis' body was found. An overall jacket found in the hills near Aberdeen, where Addis' automobile was abandoned, presumably by the killer, provided the Sheriff with a clue in the slaying. County officers learned the jacket had been purchased in Ashland, Ky.

Brandel said that employees in the Addis garage had identified Hatfield's picture as that of the stranger with whom Addis left the garage.

Addis was believed to have been drugged, dragged from his automobile to the outbuilding and shot.

Sheriff Brandel sent circulars to law enforcement departments in five states in an effort to locate Hatfield. He learned late Sunday of Hatfield's arrest in Philadelphia and declared, "We are certain the Hatfield arrested in Philadelphia is the Hatfield we have been looking for."

A murder charge was filed against Hatfield by Addis' father. Hatfield was received at the London Prison Farm June 10, 1942, to serve a term for burglary and escaped last January 25.

INSURANCE MEN HEAR SENATOR

District Convention Is Held
In Dayton Monday;
Agents Here Attend

Insurance agents from throughout this part of Ohio were well represented at the district convention of the Ohio Association of Insurance Agents held in Dayton, September 13.

Senator Theodore M. Gray, of Piqua, executive secretary of the association, delivered one of the main addresses, saying in part:

"To further promote safe driving and remove the irresponsible driver from the highway is the purpose of the new Safety Financial Responsibility Law, effective Sept. 20, 1943.

"Highway safety education and public protective legislation have been developing for more than a quarter century. Public consciousness of the irresponsible driver has promoted the safety education in many states, notably, New York, Michigan, Indiana and now Ohio.

"Ohio did have a driver's license law under which the driver might have one accident 'free'.

"Under the new statute every driver must be able to show financial responsibility in the first accident. While the Ohio law is not compulsory it is advisable that every driver study this new statute. A copy may be obtained at the time he receives his driver's license, which, under the law, must be done sometime this month."

Italian armed resistance to the Nazis.

Capture of Crotone above the Gulf of Squillace on the eastern toe put most of that jutting peninsula in Allied hands. Catanzaro, communications key to the southwest, already had been overrun.

Striking across the heel from Taranto, British soldiers took the Adriatic port of Brindisi, and the Paris radio said Bari, 69 miles up the coast, also fell to the Allies. These two harbors would give jumping-off points for possible invasion of the Balkans.

(The British radio broadcast that British had captured Altamura, 22 miles west of Bari. Bari is approximately 50 miles north of Taranto and an important port on the Adriatic. It is 65 miles up the coast from Brindisi. The broadcast was heard by NBC.)

Russians Drive On

Bryansk, big German base and key to the Nazi defense position on the central front, was menaced by Russian heavy artillery today as Red army troops drove to within 12 miles of the city from the east.

A Soviet communique, broadcast from Moscow, disclosed that Russian troops were at Belye Berega, after a four-mile drive which resulted in the capture of 40 villages in bitter fighting.

Elsewhere the Russians were meeting with success in their campaign to push the Nazis to the Dnieper or beyond before winter, gaining up to 18 1/2 miles and wresting 240 towns from German control in heavy fighting which resulted in the death of 3,700 German troops, the Soviet war bulletin said.

The stab at Bryansk threatened to unsettle the entire northern end of the 600-mile active Russian front. Other Red army columns cut the Bryansk-Vyazma railroad at Bitosh, 40 miles north of Bryansk, leaving only the railroads through Roslavl and Gomel as possible avenues of escape for the Nazis.

Other Russian troops were advancing along the Kiev-Konotop railway toward Kiev, capital of the Ukraine, and were closing in on Nezhin, large railroad junction town 72 miles northeast of Kiev.

On the Sea of Azov the Russians had swept 15 miles beyond the port of Mariupol and were heading toward Melitopol, 85 miles to the west.

Japs Kept on Run

The Japanese garrison at Salamaua today made desperate attempts to keep open a trail to Lae, its only channel of escape, so tight was the Allied surface and aircraft blockade along northeastern New Guinea's coastal barge route.

Australian pioneers who swam the flooded Francisco River Saturday had overrun prized Salamaua airdrome two miles from the city without encountering resistance.

Anzac troops who followed the pioneers across the river were last reported pushing Japanese remnants holding a ridge one mile and a half northwest of airstrip.

At the same time seaborne Allied troops from the east and airborne forces from the northwest slowly closed their lines on Lae, 18 miles above Salamaua and, except for that tottering base, the only remaining Japanese position of consequence anywhere along the 175-mile rim of Huon Gulf.

Both fighting units encountered opposition, but neither today's Allied communique nor a spokesman for Gen. Douglas MacArthur gave any suggestion that they were checked seriously in their joint advance.

It was obvious that the two encircling forces were maneuvering into position for the final drive to destroy that Japanese stronghold.

In the Solomon Islands and in the waters around New Guinea and New Britain, reconnaissance bombers attacked a total of eight enemy freighters and set afire or otherwise damaged at least five. Other planes and Allied torpedo boats sank a Japanese coastal vessel, destroyed 12 barges, damaged four others and sank or damaged more.

Make It Last by Re-Dyeing

"Make it last as long as you can," consumers are urged by Donald Nelson, chief of the War Production Board, in this conserving fabrics, you needn't look drab or dated either. Home-dyeing will make your present wardrobe last longer, look better. You can tint practically every item in your wardrobe, to say nothing of such home decorations as curtains, slip covers, bedspreads, sheets and pillow cases. You have over 50 true colors from which to choose—many no longer available in new fabrics. You'll be saving money by re-dyeing, too. Since a box of home-dye costs but 10c or 15c. And home-dyeing is really very simple, once you read the directions on the box.

Neville Fairley were the recipients of the scoring trophies.

Bringing the hours to a close, a dessert course was served, the tables graced with dainty summer flowers.

Marriage Announced

Marked by an impressive dignity was the marriage Saturday evening of Miss Betty Jean Blaine and Mr. James Douglass Daniels.

Dr. Willis B. Kilpatrick read the ring service at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frances Briggs, West Jefferson Street. Miss Rosemary Daniels and Mr. Dwight Clayton were the only attendants.

The guests were only the immediate members of the families. Mrs. Daniels is the daughter of Mr. Ralph Blaine, Toledo, but resided in this city. Mr. Daniels is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Daniels and is engaged in farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels left following the wedding for a brief motor trip, after which they will reside with the former's parents. The announcement of this popular young couple's marriage elicits happy felicitations from their many friends in Greenfield.

GOOD HOPE BOY HELPS TO SHIP WAR PRISONERS

'Pete' Pitzer Is on Vessel
Which Brings 850 Germans
To U. S. from Africa

"We brought 850 German prisoners back with us," wrote Boatswain's mate Lawrence Henry (Pete) Pitzer to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pitzer of Good Hope when his ship put in at Norfolk, Va., early this month. Pitzer had returned from a voyage to Africa.

He has seen two and one-half years of active duty during his nearly five years in the Navy. He joined December 23, 1938, and has since made eight Atlantic crossings.

"Just arrived from Africa yesterday and received your letter," his letter, dated September 1, reads. "We had a swell trip over and back," he continued, as he told about transporting the prisoners. Pitzer's letter did not state where the prisoners were taken after the landing at Norfolk.

He attended Bloomingburg High School before he joined the navy. Some time ago he was pictured in the Columbus Dispatch on sub-spotting duty while the convoy with which he sailed was on the Atlantic.

Besides "Pete", who is 23, Mr. and Mrs. Pitzer have one other son in the service—Pfc. Edward Pitzer who is stationed somewhere in North Africa with a quartermaster's company.

OHIO HARNESS RACING BACKGROUND IN MAKING MOVIE, 'PHANTOM FILLY'

through Saturday, has been scheduled at the half-mile county fairground track here to accommodate the film company.

Two Ohioans, unknown in theatrical circles, will star in the production. They are Miss Sarah Abbey and Stella Handover and they're not at all nervous about their debut as professional movie actresses—both are three-year-old trotters.

Hollywood figures who will be here include the character actor, Walter Brennan, and starlets June Haver and Jeanne Crain.

The chestnut Miss Abbey, owned by Walter J. Michael of Bucyrus, will be cast in the title role of the "Filly," and her film opposition on the track will be the bay Stella Hanover from Joe Neville's stables at Delaware.

Although the script calls for two-year-olds, the three-year-olds were chosen because as a rule they are better mannered. Opening scenes of the movie will be photographed at the famous Walnut Hall Nursery at Donerail, Kentucky, where the "Phantom Filly" is foaled. The "Filly's" early life and initial training will be shot at the estate of the late James McGowan at Mt. Sterling, Ky.

The big race in the filly's career and the climax of the story will be filmed at the Marion meet. Scenes of secondary races are to be taken at the Fremont, O., track.

It is in one of these that the Phantom is scheduled to take a bad spill. But Miss Sarah Abbey and her driver, Curly Smart, won't make the crack-up.

True to the best Hollywood tradition, the equine star will have a stand-in.

Moral Effect of Italy's Fall
Seen in Hitler's Hysteria
And Befuddling Propaganda

Hitler's screams of rage at Italy's "treachery," and his feverish efforts to offset the debacle with a bewildering barrage of propaganda and such theatricals as the establishment of a puppet government in Rome, show clearly that the moral effect of his Axis partner's collapse is like a knife between the ribs.

Frequently it's difficult to separate the moral and military effects at a confused moment like this, because military adversity follows the moral shock so quickly. However, it strikes me that in the long run the moral aspect of this historic surrender is going to be the biggest Allied gain. Recognition of this drove the Fuehrer to the microphone Saturday to try to prevent a stampede at home and abroad by double talk. That speech was underscored with fear. It wasn't the same old arrogant Hitler who strove to produce oily words to pour on the troubled waters, but a badly frightened Herr Shickelguber who found the oil barrel empty.

At least twice the master gangster trotted out the old bugbear of Allied intention to destroy Germany and other Axis countries—one of Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels' favorite lines. "We all know that in this merciless struggle the defeated will be annihilated according to the wishes of our enemies," Hitler broadcast. And he declaimed that "all attempts to force the fate of an enslaved nation upon the German people will fail. It was the same old Goebbels' dope, the like of which I've heard the propaganda minister hand to a vast outdoor audience of 50,000 in Berlin—that if Germany loses the war "she will be broken up and destroyed."

Why did Hitler return to this idea so insistently? Undoubtedly because the humanitarian though firm manner in which the Allies have been handling the Italian situation makes him fear that the German people, and other Axis peoples, will realize that unconditional surrender doesn't mean that they are to be destroyed. The whole world has been watching to see what would happen to a defeated member of the Axis. Now the world knows that while Italy must pay the full and heavy price for Mussolini's brigandage, she isn't going to be "annihilated" or "enslaved." On the contrary, the world sees that the Allies even are preparing to lend the Italians a helping hand in the way of providing food and other essentials.

I believe that's going to have a tremendous effect on the German people and on other enemy countries. This may seem strange to Americans who aren't accustomed to think in bloodthirsty terms, but it becomes understandable when one stops to consider the manner in which Hitler not only literally has enslaved millions of unfortunates, but has murdered countless thousands in cold blood. Italy's trust in the Allies is being registered today by the spread of the revolt against the Nazi invaders. The Balkans are vibrating with the hope of ridding themselves of the German octopus.

However, this doesn't mean that the Allies are getting soft. It's two-fisted force which has

NWF COMMITTEE HERE VIRTUALLY COMPLETE NOW

Labor Representative Is Only Vacancy in County Organization

Organization of the Fayette County National War Fund Committee is today virtually complete except for the addition of a chairman to represent labor unions, A. B. Murray, county chairman, announced today.

"The actual campaign will not start until October 10," he said. The goal here is $22,000 and the money obtained will be allotted to the member agencies which participate in National War Fund. Glenn Woodmansee is special gifts chairman; Emmet Passmore, industrial chairman; Charles Reinke, residential chairman; Gilbert Crouse, chains and utilities chairman; Carroll Halliday, retail merchants chairman; Ralph Nisley, rural chairman; Walter Patton, publicity chairman and J. Roush Burton, treasurer.

The county plan for organization is an adaptation of the model plan submitted by NWF for all counties. Some changes have been made to fit the situation in this county.

MORE CERTIFICATES TO SCHOOL BUS DRIVERS

Four more bus drivers in the county school system have received their driving certificates, W. J. Hilly, superintendent of county schools, announced today. Bus drivers must present a doctor's certificate of physical fitness before driving certificates are issued.

Cyde H. Rings, Jefferson Village; Hybert Remey, Madison Mills; Otis Remey, Madison Mills and Frank E. Chaney, Jefferson Village bring the total of bus drivers with certificates up to 17. There are 42 drivers in the county system.

brought the United Nations success, and we're not going to ease up on that one whit.

Italy has been smashed. Germany and Japan will be smashed. Undoubtedly some heads will roll, for gangsters like Hitler and Mussolini and Tojo can't go free, but certainly nobody has any intention of wiping the guilty countries off the map.

Hitler is afraid that his people will sense this from what is happening in Italy, and that they will give up the unequal fight. The German public is beginning to understand that the Reich is beaten. As a matter of fact Hitler virtually told them in his speech that he was going to withdraw his battalions to the frontiers of the Fatherland.

They are the words of a broken world-beater.

EUROPE'S SEETHING CAULDRON
No one today can accurately foretell what may soon happen in Europe. There is every evidence that there may soon come an uprising which may mean more than any person now can predict.
There long has been a belief that when the nations now under Nazi control in Europe become convinced that the defeat of Germany is certain no opportunity will be lost for these vanquished nations, also some which are now Allied with Germany, to assert themselves desperately and more defiantly than ever before.

Europe's cauldron is beginning to seethe now and the developments of 1918 that had their culmination in the Armistice of November 11, after four years of this war, have their counterpart in Denmark and in the Balkans. The disintegration of Hitler's fortress has started. The revolt in Denmark, although quickly suppressed by the Nazis, is as significant as any development of the war. Still possessing the power to maintain their dominance of the conquered nations, the Nazis may be expected to exercise their strength swiftly and mercilessly. With Europe in a state of unrest and waiting eagerly for the first sign of weakness in the overlord's control of a troubled continent Hitler could not permit the initial revolt to make even the slightest progress.

The significance of the Danish uprising is not reduced by the circumstances of its failure. It is enough for the world, and for Europe in particular, to know that a small nation of indomitable people has had the courage to resist the oppression of its conquerors and to scuttle its fleet in a daring and an inspiring gesture of defiance.

The effect cannot be lost upon a world which awaits eagerly the hour when the enslaved shall rise. In his contemplative moments, assuming that the rush of events offers opportunity for contemplation, Hitler must find cause for deep anxiety in the analogy which he finds in the history of this last few months preceding November, 1918 and this summer of 1943.

SHIPPING IN THIS WAR
When Hitler's submarine weapon failed, as we believe now that it has, the Axis was doomed. If we had not licked the submarine then civilization, as we know it and want it to be, would have been obliterated. Because this global war is, above all things else, a war of movement.

The Allies almost lost World War I when German subs threatened to gain control of the seas. In that war the average round trip for a transport or materiel supply ship was only 6000 miles, across the Atlantic and back. And we had vastly greater resources upon which to rely on the continent, which required no shipping.

Now, with millions of men to be sent all over the world, and with this country the major source of Allied supply, the average round trip is much longer—up to 15,000 miles. Obviously this takes each ship at least twice as long, and doubles the number of craft required to transport the same number of men and tons of materiel.

In World War I only 367,000 Amer-

Washington at a Glance

WASHINGTON — So far most of the programs for putting the veterans of World War II back to work in peacetime America is composed of plans and promises.
When Congress returns this month from its summer session of pulse-beating, it will find already in the hopper more than 100 bills dealing with veterans' problems. Scores of them will never see light but others are so close to the President's now much discussed "six-point program" that it is safe to say they are already slated for passage in some form.
The President's program includes: (1) Mustering out pay for persons in the armed services and merchant marine.
(2) Unemployment insurance for those who can't find jobs readily.
(3) Provisions for further education and trade training at government expense.

(4) Credit for both unemployment insurance and old age pensions for the time they were in the service.
(5) Improved hospitalization, rehabilitation and medical care.
(6) Adequate pensions for disabled members of the services.
An effort is being made now to take this veterans' legislation out of the realm of politics. Almost all observers agree that it would be a good thing. There are a few, however, who think the national elections are too close and the armed services vote is too big a plum to avoid a scrap over it.
Nevertheless, the fight, if there is one, will be over the forms the benefits will take—not over the benefits themselves. Most of them are considered here a foregone conclusion.
There is certain to be considerable debate, too, over how much the Treasury can stand, with the economy-minded battling to keep within reasonable bounds those who think Uncle Sam's pocket has no bottom.

Certain to touch off the explosions, will be the forthcoming message to Congress in which the President has promised to outline specific legislation to cover his six points.
It is believed here now that the President's suggestions will run much in line with the post-war planning report of the now defunct National Resources Planning Board. That recommends, among other things, a three months' mustering out furlough at base pay; 26 weeks of unemployment insurance for those who can't find jobs; tuition and allowances for those who wish to continue their education or trade training.

ican fighters were transported overseas during the first year; in this war, 900,000 have been shipped and many were sent two or three times as far.

In World War I we were proud of getting 1,725,000 tons of supplies across the Atlantic in a year. This time we moved 10,500,000 tons in a like period, much of it to the far reaches of the Pacific or, if to Europe, by the long routes.

In World War I almost all of our soldiers went to France, direct or by way of England, and thereafter were not moved by water until brought home after the armistice. In this war, for the Sicilian invasion alone—a relatively small-scale forecast of what is not far ahead—3266 ships were needed to deliver men and armament and munitions and supplies.

Meanwhile, we have had to bring in, from overseas, millions of tons of raw materials to feed the almost unbelievably vast maw of our arsenal of democracy.

The shipping needs will grow from now until Europe is freed. They will not diminish materially until Japan is whipped. We might just as well recognize that and adapt our civilian lives to it.

WORDS TO REMEMBER

"Pick out the biggest and commence firing!" This stirring order from Captain Edward J. ("Iron Mike") Moran of the cruiser Boise began the action in the Solomons on October 11, 1942. In 27 minutes the Boise had sunk six Japanese ships, two of them bigger than she was.
Moran's order would make an ideal motto for the American navy. It will go down in history with Dewey's order at Manila, "You may fire when you are ready, Mr. Gridley," and Farragut's command at Mobile Bay, "Damn the torpedoes! Full speed, Jouett!"

The war will provide other watchwords for future Americans to learn. It is also furnishing plenty of heroes to revere.

Flyers' Brain Tests

increased skill in the selection of aviators. And this credit should be given to the continued and still continuing activity of a small, group of physicians who have devoted themselves to the problems of aviation medicine.

I will give one instance out of many which could be related to illustrate the modern methods of selecting aviators.
We have for several years in medical laboratories been using a device called the electro-encephalograph. It is, in short, a practical application of the fact that your brain shows its activity in electric waves—differences in potential—which can be recorded on a sheet of paper. It is really a modification of the electrocardiogram, which records very minutely the waves of the heart beat.

Record of Waking Activity
When an electrode is placed on the skull over each of your frontal lobes where the intellectual processes are believed to take place, the record during your waking activity shows a series of rapid up and down, fairly close together and varying roughly with the rapidity and intensity of your thought processes.

It is unnecessary to stress the tremendous significance of this finding. If it proves successful, the long periods of trial, error and adjustment will be done away with and the round peg fitted to the round hole immediately. Of course, it goes without saying that they can pick out those who should never try to be flyers at all. Indeed, the significance of the extension of the method into all forms of career-planning and job-hunting in civil life is only too plain.

She said nothing, however, but fussed with her scrambled eggs. She was still angry about last night—the way Bill had failed to come home, the way he had spent the evening with Alicia Carter over in Elmwood, getting home at midnight.
Bill looked at her questioningly. "Ma'am?"
"Of course not. But I've made up my mind about the cafeteria work."
"You mean you're going to take the job?"
"I'm going down to see about it—that is, if it's all right with Adam when I telephone him."
Bill laughed. "You, going to business! You're not the type."
"No?" What sort of type am I?
"The domestic type."
"But only the other morning you were picking on me because I WAS the domestic type," said Susan. "You told me to powder my nose, and not devote so much time to the house."
"Sure I did, but that has nothing to do with your going out to work."
"I don't have an outside interest."
"You don't need that. All you need to do to be the type of woman I like is pay less attention to dust-chasing and—and more attention to nose powdering."
Susan started to tell her husband that she and Brenda were going to a beauty parlor that day to see about doing things to Susan Potter's hair and face, but she changed her mind. She'd just wait and let Bill see her after the beautician had finished with her.
"Just the same," she said, "there is no harm in my going down and talking things over with Adam. If it's convenient, I'll have lunch with him in the cafeteria and see what it's like."

"Okay," said Bill. "But don't forget you've a husband to look after."
"I won't. I hope he'll remember that he has a wife to look after—and come home to—now and then."

"Let's not start that all over again," said Bill, uncomfortably. Susan didn't reply, but went and got her husband some fresh toast and coffee. Bill ate the toast and drank the coffee behind the morning paper. Susan glanced at the paper now and then, trying to see what was going on in the world, and hoping that it was going to be all right with Adam North for her to come down and have lunch with him. Now that she had definitely made up her mind to talk with him, she didn't want to postpone the matter.

And it was all right with Adam. He told her so when she telephoned him shortly after Bill had left for his office. Adam said for her to come a little before 12, as most of the workers ate then and she could get a good idea how many persons patronized the cafeteria. Susan said she'd be there on the dot, and went upstairs to dress, deciding on the red wool frock Bill admired so much. If Bill admired it, Adam probably would like it also.

"I want to see Mr. North," she was saying at five minutes to 12. "He's expecting me."

Ruth Moorehouse, sitting at her desk in Adam's outer office, looked up. "What's the name?" she started to ask, then stopped short. "Oh, it's you, Mrs. Potter. I didn't recognize you."

"It's the new hat," said Susan, smiling. "Miss Leigh and I have just been shopping."

"But isn't your hair different?" "Yes, I decided on this 'do' while in the beauty parlor earlier this morning. Do you like it?"

"It looks marvelous," said Ruth, and meant it. "And I love the way that little hat dips over one eye."

"Thanks," Susan glanced at herself in a small mirror hanging near her. "I was afraid it was a little extreme for my—er—type, but Miss Leigh said no."

"It's adorable," Ruth said. "Just sit down for a few moments. Mr. North will be free shortly." Then as she watched Susan sit down, noted her trim ankles, and how her hair gleamed above the red of the wool frock, and beneath the cute lines of the tiny hat, she frowned, wondering if she were going to have two women to worry about now.

Adam came out of his private office then. Another man was with him, a man who looked sullen and a little angry.

"Hello, Susan," Adam said. "Be with you in a jiffy." He walked to the outside door with the sullen-looking man. "No hard feelings, I hope, Otto," he said. "Everything in the line of accidents has to be looked into nowadays, especially with things as they are."

"I get it," said Otto. "So long." Adam turned back to Susan. "Now let's go."

"Did Otto confess anything?" Ruth asked.

"No," said Adam. "Let's forget the whole matter. I'm sure everything will run along smoothly." He grinned. "I think we're all more or less on even keel and apt to suspect every little incident of being something of great importance."

"I hope you're right," said Ruth. "I keep feeling nervous, though."

"Want me to send up a body-guard?" Adam asked, kidding.

"Of course not," Ruth said, and watched Adam take Susan's arm and go out with her. Then, when the door had closed behind them, she kicked the leg of her chair and muttered, "Women—always chasing Adam. They make me sick!"

Outside, Adam was steering Susan along a hall, talking about the clatter of machinery, which was each moment becoming more distinct.

"You look like a million dollars at 10 per cent interest," he said.

"Thanks," said Susan, hoping Bill would be as quick to notice the change in her. "But about the cafeteria work," she added. "Bill laughed at the idea of my working."

"Well," said Adam, "they say people laughed at Edison. And look at what he accomplished." He opened a door which led out onto a sort of balcony, from which one could look down on a lot of men and machinery. "This is the main shop," he explained. "Out of all the

First Blue Lion Casualty Not Serious As Boys Get Ready For Friday Opener

A knee injury, described by Coach Jerry Kissell as responding satisfactorily to treatment, kept Bill Curry, one of the Blue Lion's five returning lettermen, on the bench throughout Saturday's practice. The injury is expected to keep him out of action at Monday night's game, but, barring further complications, he is expected to be back at his full back position before the opening game with Springfield Central Catholic at Gardner Park Friday night.

The first casualty of fall practice resulted from an injury to one of the knee glands that requires rest for a few days to put it back in shape.

Meanwhile, several players are described as rounding out in shape for possible starting berths in the opening encounter. Coach Kissell declined to name an early possible lineup due to the uncertainty of several positions. At least five are still "wide open" with performance throughout this week's drills the only determining factor as to who get the assignments.

Kissell did indicate that all of the following boys in addition to the five lettermen from last year's squad will be seeing action before the season is far advanced: Michael, Denton, Davis, Kinser, Ray Leeth, M. Leeth, Burris, Whitmore, Walters, O'Brien, Jenkins, Mitchell, Dews, Hankins, Hughes, Gray, W. Rudduck, Rhodes, Dahler, Foster and Liso.

Playing uniforms were issued Saturday with 22 new shirts and 15 pairs of new pants being added to the team's apparel for use this fall. The color of the shirts to be worn at the opening game could not be determined until it is learned what color uniforms the opposition will be wearing.

Practice for Wednesday and Thursday will be held under the lights to afford the boys an opportunity to get the feel of things before the opener. Work will get underway around 7 o'clock on each evening. The Monday and Tuesday drills will be called right after school with a full schedule of work cut out for all concerned.

By the end of the week, the squad had tapered off to 32 boys. It is expected that none will need be dropped from the roster since approximately three teams are desired by the coaching staff.

SENSATIONAL PACER AT FAIR IS SOLD TO E. J. BAKER FOR $20,000 — NEAR TOP PRICE

The most sensational youngster to race at the Fayette County Fair in years, King's Counsel, today has a new owner, E. J. Baker, wealthy St. Charles, Mo., hotel man. He was sold by Dr. H. M. Parshall of Urbana and E. P. Gray of Bellows Falls, Vt., after he had displayed class throughout the Fair circuit during the season now drawing to a close in Ohio.

King's Counsel, driven by Parshall, was outstanding in the three-year-old pace at the Fair here. After winning in straight heats, horsemen and onlookers freely predicted great things for him. Wilkin, the colt Harold Laymon sold just after the start of the race season in early summer to Walter Michael and Joe Neville, was second to him here.

Wilkin was driven to a straight heat win at Dayton last week by Ernie Smith as the colt keeps improving. He went in 1:13, 1:09 1-2 and 1:11 in the classified dash for three-year-old pacers.

In order to get the King, which looks like a sure fire two-minute performer at Lexington, Ky., early in October, Baker had to write a check for $20,000, which is the largest price in over a quarter of a century or since C. K. G. Billings paid A. E. Van Atta $25,000 for William in 1915. Several years ago when Mr. Baker was ill he sold practically all of his stock but now he's back in the sport with both feet and plans to buy several yearlings at the sales this fall.

Parshall had several offers of $15,000 here for King's Counsel but he held out for $20,000. The King has a record of 2:00 1-2 made at Cleveland which is the best time made by any trotter or pacer this year.

Harry Fitzpatrick, the little general from Charleston, Ill., gets King's Counsel and he has stake engagements at Carthage, O., Delaware, O., Marysville, O. and at Lexington, Ky., this season.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR., NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Gil Bouley, a 230-pound tackle at Boston College last year, paired training to become an army physical training instructor at Alhambra City, N. So midsummer afternoons, Bouley swathed himself in wool and galloped along the boardwalk, most of the bathers on the beach paid little attention, but one stopped Gil and asked: "Who are you fighting?" "The Cadet Board," replied Bouley, moved off at double time.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Commissioner Landis announced the 1943 World Series would be one-trip affair with the first three games in Yankee Stadium, starting October 5. The fourth game will be at St. Louis, October 10, with competition to continue until one team wins four.

Riddle's One-Hit Victory Features Sunday Baseball

By TED MEIERS

(By The Associated Press)

It isn't often a one-hitter is pitched in the major leagues after Labor Day, but Elmer Riddle of the Cincinnati Reds accomplished the feat against the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday. Pitted against the 20-game winner, Rip Sewell, in the first game of a doubleheader, Riddle retired the first 22 men to face him. Then, with one out in the eighth, Bob Elliott doubled for the Pirates' lone bingle.

Riddle went on to gain his 19th victory of the year with a 1-0 shutout. Only one other Pittsburgh batter got on base. Pinch hitter Tommy O'Brien walked with one out in the ninth, but was erased in a double play.

Cincinnati's one run came in the fourth when Bert Haas walked and crossed home plate on singles by Steve Mesner and Eddie Miller.

Pittsburgh gained a split by taking the nightcap, 7-0, behind Xavier Rescigno's four-hit twirling, coupled with Jim Russell's three-run homer in the sixth.

Ace Adams, the "work horse" of the majors, came nearest to Riddle's performance.

Used exclusively in relief, he started his first game and beat the Boston Braves, 7-2, with a neat three-hitter. In the opener Southpaw Cliff Melton blanked the Braves, 3-0, by scattering seven hits.

The New York Yankees swept a five-game series from the Boston Red Sox, 1-0 and 9-6. Ernie Bonham outpitched Joe Dobson in the opener, yielding four hits to Dobson's six. In addition Bonham won his own game, singling Joe Gordon home in the eighth inning. Gordon had doubled and stolen third.

The St. Louis Browns likewise got good pitching from Bob Muncie and Denny Galehouse and swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 2-0 and 6-2.

Washington moved within two percentage points of the second place Cleveland Indians by beating the Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 and 9-5.

Tommy Ridges hurled a four-hitter for Detroit against Cleveland, but lost 2-1 when Mike Rocco tripled and scored on Lou Boudreau's fly. The Tigers touched Allie Reynolds for seven hits, but had two men thrown out at the plate by Roy Cullenbine.

Brooklyn won its 18th game in 21 starts by beating the Phillies 8-4 through a six-run uprising in the seventh.

The St. Louis-Chicago doubleheader was postponed.

(By The Associated Press)

The Milwaukee Brewers emerged from the next-to-last week end of play in the American Association today three games in the lead, and unless the Indianapolis Indians or Columbus Red Birds are able to rise miraculously, the pennant should belong to Charley Grimm's boys by Sunday night.

The Brewers split a doubleheader with St. Paul yesterday after winning two Saturday night, and the second place Indians lost two yesterday to third-place Columbus and sank another full game back of the leaders. The Red Birds now are four games out of first.

Milwaukee dropped the opener to the Saints, 5-4, but took the nightcap, 6-3. The Red Birds pounded Indianapolis, 13-5 and 8-0, getting 30 hits in the two games.

Louisville jumped on the fourth-place Toledo Mud Hens for 6-2 and 3-0 victories.

Kansas City won two games from Minneapolis, 4-2 and 3-0.

Other games to be played this weekend are Bucknell at Cornell, Villanova at Muhlenberg, Rochester at Yale, Purdue at Great Lakes, Marquette at Wisconsin and the Lubbock Army Air Base at Texas Tech. Presbyterian's high scoring outfit tangles with Georgia on Friday.

Third Game Lost By Pro Champs

(By The Associated Press)

The National Football League pro champs of 1942, the Washington Redskins, have made three formal appearances this season, lost all three and are happy the games don't count in the standings. The first was to the College All-Stars, 27-7; the second to Green Bay in an exhibition a week ago, 23-21.

The third defeat came yesterday at the hands of the Chicago Bears before 56,000 fans at Baltimore, 21-14, in an exhibition tilt. The New York Giants, a 42-28 victim of the Bears last week, took it out on the Detroit Lions yesterday at Akron, O., also by a 21-14 score.

The Brooklyn Dodgers plastered the Camp Lee (Va.) soldiers, 28-6.

AUTO CLUB HERE COMPLIMENTED ON MEMBERSHIP

Highest Number of Names in History of Club Now On Its Roster

Membership in the Fayette County Automobile Club today is at the highest point in its history, not in spite of but rather because of wartime restrictions on the use of automobiles, Howard C. Allen, the club's first and only secretary, said as he read a letter from the Ohio State Automobile Association commending the club and its officers here for its membership increase.

The club's books show 30 new memberships in August compared to 23 for the same month last year, a gain of seven. Allen pointed out that most of the club's members paid their dues for the year either in January, during the time when license tags formerly were issued, or in early summer, during the period of issue for the past several years.

The club roster now bears the names of 1,112 men and women, the greatest number ever on the roll. Most of them are residents of Fayette County but there is a liberal sprinkling of non-residents, who either have kept up their membership here after moving away or those who have heard of the club's many and varied services.

Contrary to fears of club officials, wartime restrictions on the use of automobiles has been a boon to the club because, Allen explained, so many of the complex problems are solved by the club personnel for the members. He said, for example, the club takes care of all applications for rationing of tires, gasoline and cars for its members. He added that this service even went beyond actual automobile requirements and frequently took in tractors and other farm equipment requiring rubber tires or gasoline.

These services, the secretary pointed out, are in addition to the regular help given, such as handling license tags and drivers licenses without extra charge, insurance, bail bond and following through on accident claims.

As for the increase in membership, which has received recognition by the state association, the letter speaks for itself, he said:

"We have just finished the first quarter of our membership contest, and quota for your club for this period was 52. The actual production for the same period was 84, so you are 32 memberships over your quota. Your record of consistent gains each month is a tribute to the splendid service your club is rendering to the motorists of Fayette County."

"When the membership promotion committee set up this new contest, they took into consideration last year's production as well as the previous year's, and we trust your club will stay amongst those in the over quota column."

CORN CUTTING IS UNDER WAY

More Corn Cutters Reach City from Hills of Ohio And Kentucky

Corn cutting in Fayette County is now becoming more or less general, although scores of fields were opened the past week and corn is ripening rapidly.

In some instances fields are being opened by cutting a few rows, or half shocking the corn, and in this way it offers the newly cut corn a chance to dry considerably before the remainder of the shock is cut, and at the same time speeding ripening of the corn left standing.

In the meantime many corn cutters from southern Ohio and Kentucky are arriving in the county. Some already have jobs and others stop here until they find work.

Farmers desiring corn cutters should list their names and other information with the U. S. Employment Service here, and workmen coming into the county may be directed to the employment office to obtain assignments.

VETERANS of FOREIGN WARS, O. E. HARDWAY POST No. 3762

$44,000 E BONDS SOLD IN COUNTY DURING AUGUST

Quota for Month was $59,000 No Series F and G Bonds Sold

Fayette Countians purchased $44,000 worth of series E bonds during August, $15,000 short of the quota of $59,000 for the month. The total Ohio sales were $41,513,000. No sales of F and G bonds here were noted on the official tabulation received from the Ohio War Finance Committee, although $8,154,000 were sold in the state.

The War Finance Committee here credits the failure to meet the August quota to the fact that most people in the county were saving their bond buying for the Third War Loan drive which began September 9. The committee also pointed out that the lag was state-wide.

Fayette County is up to its quota for the year, it was emphasized. Surplus sales for some months are parcelled out over months when the quota is not met to even up the over-all quota. The quota of $75,000 for series E bonds during September is expected to be exceeded by $100,000 or more.

Comparative figures show that series E bonds during the same period, plus $11,000 in series F and G. Greene County tops all surrounding counties with a $426,000 sale of series E bonds but came up with only $7,000 in F and G bonds.

Madison County, like Fayette and Clinton counties, sold $44,000 in series E bonds with $1,000 F and G as well. Highland County's August sales of series E bonds was $55,000 with $2,000 in the other two series.

Pickaway and Ross counties sold $29,000 and $128,000 in series E bonds respectively, while their total sales in F and G bonds were $4,000 and $59,000.

ALLIES DOUBT NAZIS FREED MUSSOLINI IN RAID BY PARATROOPS

the Italian people, thoroughly sick of war and Fascism, would pay little attention to it.

Twelve hours after his reported release by German parachute troops and elite guards was announced by Berlin, broadcasts recorded by The Associated Press began a full-blast exploitation of the incident, hailing it as a master stroke and "an audacious venture."

A DNB broadcast said "competent circles in Berlin state that other Fascist leaders were freed with Mussolini."

(The Office of War Information noted that while the Nazis were boasting about Mussolini's capture, they hadn't seen fit to have him broadcast, and weren't even quoting him today).

The Netherlands radio said Vittorio Mussolini, eldest son of the deposed Duce, had arrived in

TWO HURT WHEN AUTO RAMS INTO TELEPHONE POLE

Former Washingtonians in Crash Sunday Morning On Way To Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, Dayton, both of whom formerly lived here, were injured when their car rammed into a telephone pole and a cement abutment at 12:15 A. M. Sunday. Mrs. Brown, formerly Helen Rose, is in the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, with a fractured right leg and numerous bruises and lacerations. The accident occurred half way between Xenia and Jamestown. Brown, whose head was badly cut and who was bruised severely, is now at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sam Brown, 420 Third Street. He will be unable to work for several days, his mother said.

The Brown automobile, a Chevrolet sedan was a total wreck, according to Mrs. Sam Brown. The couple was driving from Dayton Saturday night to visit Mrs. Brown when Brown reportedly dozed for a few moments at the wheel and unconsciously pressed the accelerator, his wife said. The auto was rounding a curve. Mrs. Brown said, and crashed into the telephone pole and abutment.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been living in Dayton for about two years.

Germany, but it did not indicate whether he was one of those whom the Germans claim to have freed.

What use the Germans intended to make of Mussolini after 49 days of confinement away from his balcony at Palazzo Venezia remained to be seen, but it was likely that he might be restored as a puppet dictator in the Nazi-controlled territory in northern Italy.

Details of the reported "rescue" were still lacking, but a Berlin communique last night said that he had been freed by parachute troops, security service men and armed members of the S. S.

The British Broadcasting Corporation, in a radio news bulletin to the Italian people, said that Mussolini had been released by

$136,306 SOLD IN 3 DAYS OF WAR LOAN DRIVE

State Treasury Plans To Add $22,000 to County's Quota of $1,018,000

Total War Bond sales for the first three days of the Third War Loan Drive in Fayette County are $136,306.25, J. Roush Burton, recorder of the War Finance Committee here, announced today. This total will be swelled by the $22,000 allotted to Fayette County as its share of the $15,000,000 one-year certificates of indebtedness to be purchased by the state.

Burton added that the sales here would probably come in faster, now that the solicitors who did not "get on the ball" Thursday, when the drive opened, would start canvassing this week. Burton said that some salesmen had not yet turned in their reports of bond sales.

With the purchase of the certificates of indebtedness, Ohio's total investment in War Bonds will be brought up to $35,000,000, State Treasurer, Don H. Ebright said today. He added that while the state was making its $15,000,000 purchase, he had asked the War Finance Committee to credit each county with a specific sum to apply against its Third War Loan quota.

At the same time he announced the State Employees' Retirement System, the State Industrial Commission, the School Employees' Retirement System and the Teachers' Retirement System also would participate in the War Bond drive, but that the respective sums to be invested in bonds had not yet been determined.

the Germans and added that Premier Badoglio and King Vittorio Emanuele "are safe at an undisclosed place on Italian soil."

Mussolini's whereabouts have been more or less of a mystery since his sudden fall, but it is believed in London that he has been held a prisoner in the Pontine Islands off the west coast of Italy.

FROM WOODS TO WAR New FitzPatrick Technicolor Picture Portrays Trees on the March

Although steel, coal, and rubber receive most attention as prima donnas of war industry, wood is a number one sinew of the fighting forces, according to Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson, who says that the 120,000,000 tons of wood for the American part in the conflict this year will exceed our use of steel.

James A. FitzPatrick, famed producer of travelogs, has recorded this interesting fact in a new, swiftly-moving Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer "miniature" Technicolor picture which will play here at the Fayette Theatre beginning Wednesday, September 15th.

Titled WOOD GOES TO WAR, the new film starts at the timber line and carries the trees through to their ultimate destination as troop housing, explosives, ships, planes, and shops.

Government statisticians estimate that 4000 board feet of wood is required for every man in military service. Those who see this picture will not challenge the estimate when they see wood being used by the trainload to build bodies for Army trucks, wings and fuselages for bombing and training planes, shipyard scaffolding, airplane hangars, even the blueprint paper which military engineers use in carload quantities, and finally the newsprint on which the public reads the war news when the battles are fought.

WOOD GOES TO WAR is a picture which will give audiences at the Fayette Theatre a thrilling new conception of the magnitude of the commercial forests in this country and of the part they are playing in the "Arsenal of Democracy." Compressed in its nine minutes of showing time are a hundred gripping scenes, both from the actual battle fronts of the warring nations and from the home fronts where the materials of warfare also are dramatically produced and supplied.
